Skill: Fact and Opinion
Focus: Is the first sentence on page 48 a statement of fact or of opinion? Why?

Respond:

Skill: Compare and Contrast
Focus: How are seed leaves and true leaves alike? How do they differ?

Respond:

Skill: Compare and Contrast
Focus: How are the male and female flowers on a pumpkin vine different?

Respond:
Using Text to Locate Information

Focus: What are four things that can harm a pumpkin plant?

Respond:
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________

Asking Questions

Focus: What are some questions you can ask yourself about pumpkins? Begin your questions with who, what, when, where, why, or how.

Respond:
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________

Name: ___________________________  Date: ________________